Dear Skaneateles family,

Included in this link are the results from our family survey shared last week. Family Survey Data

We will be using this information to make informed and thoughtful decisions on our direction for next year while navigating all of the constraints included in the comprehensive guidance we are required to follow. NYSED Guidance

It is clear that the community shares our belief that in-person instruction is preferred so long as health and safety can be maintained. Our plan will be officially released on Friday, July 31. We anxiously await further guidance or decisions promised by the Governor's office by August 7. We appreciate your participation and patience throughout this process as we navigate all of these challenges together.

Strong together,

Eric Knuth Superintendent of Schools
