

Hush Little Polar Bear

JEFF MACK

Hush little polar bear sleep in the snow and dream of the places where sleeping bears go...

Sail the high seas on the back of a whale.

Land on a beach and then follow a trail.

Wade through a marsh where the tall grasses grow where butterflies flutter and warm breezes blow.

bounce through a pasture where cows come to graze.

Creep through a cave with an underground maze.

Swim through a waterfall. Splash in a stream.

Paddle past rainbows that glisten and gleam.

Swing through the trees from a dangling vine.

Forge through a desert where stars shimmer and shine.

Climb a tall mountain where billy goats play where breezes grow cooler and clouds fade away.

Leap from the peak and then float through the sky.

Soar as the hawks and the eagles fly by.

Dive through the clouds to a town far below

with the lights from the streetlamps and houses aglow.

Drift through my window. Crawl into bed.

Curl up beside me and rest your sweet head.

Pretend that you're sleeping and dreaming like me.

Then look right beside you and that's where I'll be.
