

WELCOME TO THE NEW SCHOOL YEAR!

Transportation Eligibility ...

Transportation will be provided to all students whose parents wish for them to have a ride if the location of their residence meets the following guidelines:

- (1) Students in grades 6-12, living more than 1.1 miles from the school which they attend, will be eligible for busing.
- (2) All kindergarten students are eligible for busing. Students in grades 1-5, living more than 0.1 (one-tenth) of a mile from the school which they attend, will be eligible for busing. Please note: Students being transported may be required to walk a short distance to the bus stop.
- (3) Most students attending non-public schools will ride the public pickup buses to the Middle School. At that point, students will transfer to the appropriate bus for transfer to their school.

The first day of the 2021-2022 school year at Skaneateles Central Schools will be Tuesday, September 7, 2021

For the first few days of school ...

- Grades 6-12, eligible for transportation, should be ready at the bus stop by 6:45 to 7:00 am.
- Kindergarten-grade 5 should be ready at the bus stop by 7:45 to 8:00 am.

After the first few days of school, it will be possible to estimate your schedule more accurately.

Buses leave for home daily as follows ...

- Grades 6-12 buses leave the Middle School at 2:27 pm
- Kindergarten-grade 5 leaves Waterman at 3:30 pm.
